

Elemental Projects

Leading Projects: the Role of the Steering Committee

High-functioning steering committees are the linchpin of successful project delivery, ensuring alignment, oversight, and strategic decision-making.

- Versatile training for all types of projects
- Aligned with national and global standards
- Engaging, flexible, conversation-led learning
- Delivered by experienced project management experts

This course develops quality and consistency in the leadership and governance of projects by steering committees.

This training develops the knowledge and skills required to guide and support any type of projects as a member of the Steering Committee.

Participants engage in real-world case studies and group discussions to gain and share insights.

Facilitated by seasoned project management professionals with extensive industry experience.

Flexible Delivery: facilitated online or in-person, over 1 to 3 hours.

Topics explored

- Role & responsibilities of steering committees
- Standard Terms of Reference for SteerCos
- Project management methodologies
- Strategic alignment & performance monitoring
- Effective oversight and governance practices
- Communication and stakeholder management
- Supporting sponsorship and benefits realisation

Learning Outcomes

- Understand the role of steering committees in project governance.
- Understand the importance of diversity, culture, and soft attributes of governance.
- Understand hard attributes of governance including structure, policy and information.
- Skills in strategic alignment, performance monitoring and reporting.
- Skills in critical thinking and strategic decision-making.

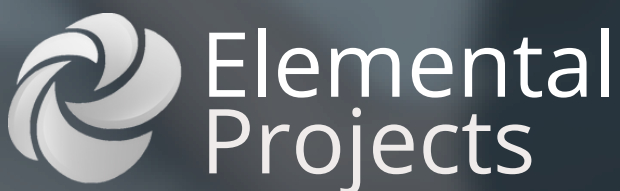

Steering committees, also call SteerCos, Project Board or Project Steering Group, play a pivotal role in successful project management. They are responsible for providing strategic direction and making key decisions related to the project.

Plan.
Govern.
Lead change.
Transition.
Deliver.

Uplift project management and leadership capability to enable good work, done well.

elementalprojects.com.au

Elemental Projects (Australia) Pty Ltd