

MAD ABOUT PROJECTS.

Session 1 - Morning

This session offers a big-picture view of project management, covering four project types, matching delivery methodologies, the updated PMBoK® Guide structure and key concepts for project professionals.

Session 2 - Afternoon

Step into the glamour of 1965 New York with “Mencken Madness” a gamified project management simulation inspired by the hit TV show Mad Men. Compete as rival ad agencies, create key project documents as you navigate the twists and turns of the project lifecycle.

Come for the day,
or stay for the qualification...

Get up to speed with contemporary project management practices and experience a dynamic, gamified simulation that makes learning seriously fun.

This uplifting day of learning and networking is based on the first two sessions of our BSB50820 Diploma of Project Management. On completion, you will have the opportunity to continue with the remainder of our flagship course.*

*Costs and eligibility criteria apply if upgrading to the Diploma program.
