

RPL

ASSESSMENT

Fast-track your qualification

If you've been delivering projects but never gained a formal qualification in project management, Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) could be your fastest pathway to the BSB50820 Diploma of Project Management.

Who's it for?

Project professionals with at least 3 years' experience managing projects who can provide documents from past projects (e.g. plans, budgets, schedules, status reports, stakeholder engagement, PIRs, approvals...). You must also be an Australian citizen or permanent resident to enroll in this qualification.

What's involved?

1. Complete a self-assessment with examples from projects that you have managed in the past 5 years
2. Submit your portfolio of evidence (documentation)
3. Discuss your evidence during 1-2 online interviews
4. Receive your nationally recognised Diploma

Why choose Elemental Projects?

- Support and guidance from experienced assessors
- We specialise in PM and are methodology agnostic
- You set the pace with up to 12 months to complete
